

CONSTRUCTION HELPER

Summary

Hardworking and Experienced Construction Worker who is dependable, reliable and knowledgeable about the tools, materials and methods used in construction. Motivated to get along well with others and exceed expectations. With three years of experience in the carpentry trade and construction.

Highlights

- Residential construction
- Leadership
- Exceptional problem solver
- Sandbagging
- Excellent driving record
- Strong communication skills
- Friendly and hardworking
- Detail-oriented

Accomplishments

Led a crew of eight general construction laborers.

Successfully ran a general contracting business of two houses.

Experience

July 2008 to January 2010

Company Name City, State Construction helper

Extensively trained in carpentry, painting, plastering, machine servicing and installation. Cleaned all construction areas to avoid hazards.

Removed old roofing materials in an efficient manner. Installed and repaired roofs, flashings and surfaces. Completed indoor and outdoor residential and commercial construction projects. Swept and cleaned roofs to prepare them for the application of new roofing materials. Applied paint to unfinished edges of plastic panels using a hand roller. Arranged and stored materials, machines, tools and equipment. Cut materials to specified sizes for installation using power saws and tile cutters. Transported materials, tools and machines to installation sites. Worked with tools such as pruning saws, hedge and brush trimmers and axes.

May 2007 to September 2007

Company Name City, State Carpenter Helper

Installed cabinets, base cabinets and crown molding. Built and stained oak casing and hardwood floors. Constructed custom built-in bookshelves for residential home office areas. Set windows and layouts for stairs and common rafters. Ordered materials and made material stock recommendations.

Education

September 2010

General English course, Leeds University, UK. * December 2009-January 2010: Computer course, Al-Azhar University.

May 2011

Azhar University

Religions, Al

B.A Religions, Al Dawah and Islamic Culture - Grade: Very Good, the second top student in the section.

December 2013

the American University

State

General English course, Western Michigan University. USA. August 2013: Academic English course, Colorado State University. USA January

2013: A course in American literature, the American embassy in Cairo. February 2013: Academic Writing course, AMIDEAST in Cairo. June

2012: English for Islamic purposes

December 2012

General English course, AMIDEAST in Cairo. *October 2009-June 2011: General English Course, Al-Azhar English Training Center. *

September 2011: Democracy dialogue course, Al-Azhar English Training Center.

August 2011

Presentation Skills course, Al-Azhar English Training Center.

Languages

Good command of English, and very little of Spanish.

Interests

2014: presented in Midwest Popular Culture Association Conference about "Arab American Culture through the Mawlid: Muslim Devotional Gatherings in the Midwestern United States" 2015: presented in Global Halal: Muslim and Cultural Politics of the Permissible conference about "the Permissibility of Maulid celebration among Muslim American in Chicago" Extracurricular Activities: Doing my masters about Muslims in

Midwestern America, Western Michigan University. USA. Giving Friday's Khutbah (in both Arabic and English) in Bilal Islamic center, Kalamazoo, MI. and Madina Islamic center and masjid, Benton Harbor, MI Holding Arabic and Quranic classes for children and Adult in Michigan. USA. Administrating a social networking site at Al Azhar English Training Centre to discuss Islam with people worldwide Chosen as students' representative to meet a variety of people at Al Azhar English Training Centre, including high profile foreign visitors (including the British foreign secretary) Developing communication skills through interacting with native English speakers online and at Al Azhar English Training Centre

- Conferences: 2014: presented in Midwest Popular Culture Association Conference about "Arab American Culture through the Mawlid: Muslim Devotional Gatherings in the Midwestern United States" 2015: presented in Global Halal: Muslim and Cultural Politics of the Permissible conference about "the Permissibility of Maulid celebration among Muslim American in Chicago" Extracurricular Activities: Doing my masters about Muslims in Midwestern America, Western Michigan University. USA. Giving Friday's Khutbah (in both Arabic and English) in Bilal Islamic center, Kalamazoo, MI. and Madina Islamic center and masjid, Benton Harbor, MI Holding Arabic and Quranic classes for children and Adult in Michigan. USA. Administrating a social networking site at Al Azhar English Training Centre to discuss Islam with people worldwide Chosen as students' representative to meet a variety of people at Al Azhar English Training Centre, including high profile foreign visitors (including the British foreign secretary) Developing communication skills through interacting with native English speakers online and at Al Azhar English Training Centre

Skills

Academic, Arabic, carpentry, English, Presentation Skills, Spanish