

GRAPHIC DESIGNER

Professional Summary

Hi There!

As a designer with a strong passion for this profession and excellent qualification, I am seeking to align myself with your company for strong growth. The range of my experiences include anything from editorial and packaging designs, marketing and advertising promotional products and people, and developing conceptual designs. My southern heritage and style is reflected in my designs, and personality. I have the will to succeed and the motivation to progress as a better creative leader. With this noted I would like to submit my resume to your company. I believe upon your review, you will come to see that I place all my passion and energy in my performance. You will recognize from my innovated ideas that I am a good candidate for your position. More of my greatest strengths, essential and consistent are:

• Extensive expertise in Adobe and Windows softwares.

• Precise attention to details & comfortable managing and working within a group.

• Punctuality and professionalism with strong customer service experience.

• Strong record of being responsible for marketing campaigns, design teams, and event coordinating.

• Enthusiastic dedicated problem solver.

For the past five years, I have been studying and working with visual arts, graphic designs, marketing concepts, photography, and event coordinating. I have worked along side of Creative Directors, Art Directors, University Presidents and through all my experiences working with different clients and coworkers, I have realized that a good concept is a great end product if executed correctly. I feel that I have the will power and design background to execute all my projects to the very best potential. In other words, my dual strengths as a creative designer and effective manager. I am seeking a professional opportunity to utilize my leadership, problem solving and great customer service skills at your company.
